

Lunch bunch At the Capitol

Join us for an informative and entertaining hour.

Wednesday, October 19, 2005

Donald W. Carson and James W. Johnson speak about their book, MO, The Life and Times of Morris K. Udall, introducing us to the politician, the environmentalist and the man.

This presentation is followed by a special tour of "The Udall Brothers: Voices for the Environment" exhibit from the University of Arizona Library Special Collections.

Wednesday, November 16, 2005

Biographer J. Brian Smith, discusses his book, John J. Rhodes: Man of the House, a biography about a man who was the quintessential role model for legislative effectiveness.

Wednesday, December 14, 2005 (NOTE DATE CHANGE)

Melanie Sturgeon is the author of "Where There's Smoke, There's Fire: the Secret Life of D. J. Boleyn". Her presentation addresses Boleyn's life as a bigamist and other issues that men separated from their families faced in the frontier communities.

You are invited to attend the Arizona Capitol Museum Guild meeting after the presentation s.

BRING YOUR LUNCH

Time: 12:15 – 1:00 PM

Location: Arizona Capitol Museum Visitors' Lounge
First Floor 1700 West Washington Phoenix 602.542.4342

Free parking in Wesley Bolin Plaza parking lot, across 17th Avenue